It is said the soviet govern ment in Russia is willing to grant anything to the outside powers if they will only some seroes with a little loss of real money. Lonin and Trotaky are getting hard up.

Mr. Thomas W. Lament of the 3. Reportsuse of J. P. Morgan & Co. says money is "loosening up." Well, if that's true we'll keep ours tight. J. P. never loosens up with his maney until he is out after the other fellows.

The Mattenal Republican cave: The Wilson Foundation fund deem's even to be moving very fast. If a big permanent memo-riel to Mr. Wilson is necessary, why not name the national debt after him?

This is a simple pleasantry, of poeres, but when we consider the tremendous burden the naal debt imposes agen the people, the suggestion has a very, very serious significance. While this debt was piled up to its present monumental pro-persons during our brief partici-pation in the world war, it is to a great extent the effect of the ceratio Wilsonian control of Democratic Wilsonian control of the government at that time. It appeals therefore atoms as im-periorable memorial to Wilson and his party, alguifying their aspectation, conscientionalises greed ppt representation tempo-city at a measure of the nation's

SHOWS WAR'S RAVABES

Astrakhan Much Like New Orleans After Civil War.

Russian City Trying to Regain Its Fermer Prosperity, but Process Liked There.

Astrakhan, Russin.-Once prosper s but now ravaged by revolution, the situation of this city reminds the risitor of the condition of New Or as after the Civil war. It is trying to regain its former prosperity, but the process is slow. In its position Astrakhan resembles New Orleans in some ways. The city is pitched on an island at a point where the Volga

Today are seen the wrecks wrought by combat between the imperial and revolutionary forces, but no sympathy is expressed with communism. "We have had enough," said one of the workmen who, together with thou-sands of his fellows had for eighteen days, just after the Petrograd and Moscow risings in 1917, took to arms and besieged the Cossack troops and the wealthy people of the city, gathered in the Kremiin walls, in soldier barracks and other points at the

The immediate result of these eight-sen days of carnete was the destruc-tion of the duma buildings, the governor's house, the great basaar and several blocks of stores filled with dry
